OCLC Number: (OCoLC)51252057 Subject: Employee screening -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 needed fiscal year 1999 - 2006 to address the deficiencies for a system that was projected to cost 100 million when fully operational. According to GAO, the case control management system suffers serious weaknesses and will be far more difficult to fix than DSS anticipates. During the September 2000 NSVAIR Subcommittee hearing, addressing the CCMS issue, the Director of DSS stated, there were dramatic improvements resulting from the software enhancements and corrections that have been implemented within the last 6 months. Yet the DOD - IG in December 2000 recommended the Assistant Secretary of Defense-C3I analyze whether the investment for the Case Control Management System provides the best business solution when compared to alternative solutions for opening, tracking, and closing personnel investigation cases. The Defense Security Service is making progress since the subcommittee oversight investigation of the agency began a little more than 2 years ago. However, DSS has a long way to go to resolve systemic problems of tracking and promptly completing personnel security investigations. In the meantime, national security risks increase and the need for additional financial resources grows. According to Donald Mancuso, Acting Inspector General, Simply put, the inability to track and promptly complete personnel security investigations has had a devastating effect on the Department's ability to ensure that national security is protected and that military, civilian and contractor employees have the timely clearances needed to complete their jobs. On a human level, the lack of timely clearances prevents people from obtaining employment in DOD, and in the case of contractor employees, causes the loss of...
