HONEY ISLAND SWAMP MONSTER DOCUMENTATIONS

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 64 pages. Harlan Ford was the first person to pour plaster castings of tracks and report a sighting to the media of an unknown creature known worldwide as the legendary Honey Island Swamp Monster. Harlan Ford was my grandfather. While recently moving everything from the Ford home after it was sold, we came across a letter that Harlan Ford wrote in the 1970s to the Argosy Magazine about his encounter with the Honey Island Swamp Monster. Im not sure if the letter was ever published. After Harlan Ford passed away in 1980, his story of the Honey Island Swamp Monster has been told and retold by many people. As we all know when things are retold so many times, certain details change, get exaggerated, maybe by accident, maybe on purpose. Some people try to say his story was a hoax after a local hunter found a track glued on the bottom of a shoe. But luckily Fords encounters were documented in his own words in the letter. I inserted Harlan Fords actual letter that he typed in this book. There are also documented sightings from more recent eye-witnesses. Dana Holyfield - Evans has authored several books and produced several documentary films, including The Legend of the Honey Island Swamp Monster. She has made special appearances on TV shows such as; Swamp People, Hannitys America for Fox News, Fact or Faked, Mysteries at the Museum, Monsters and Mysteries, and American Monsters, and Swamp Monsters. Scenes from her documentary film was featured in Lost Tapes on Animal Planet. Dana was invited to speak at the Creature Weekend 2012 conference in Salt Fork State Park in Ohio. She continues research to document sightings on the Honey Island Swamp Monster. She is currently working on a new docu-drama about...
