Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the 1970s, authors Patricia Clark Taylor and Shelvy Snead were neighbors in a Maryland community on the Magothy River. For an entire decade, beginning in 1973, Patricia traveled with her engineer husband to Rome, Riyadh, and later to Israel. These were the years of the 1973 Arab Oil Embargo, the 1973 Arab Israeli War, the massive build up of Saudi Arabia, and a stronger American-Saudi alliance. These were also the years of peace plans initiated by Egypt's President Sadat followed by Israel's return of the Sinai to Egypt. With the murder of President Sadat, the Middle East fell more and more into chaos and Saudi became more and more powerful. During Patricia's return trips to Maryland, she related her stories of these dynamic years to neighbor Shelvy who encouraged her to organize her photos, notes, and many adventures and write them for others to read. Now, decades later, Patricia and Shelvy create a memorable screenplay epic story. The Script Unveiled, a work of fiction, surrounds true, historic events as it follows the life of Catherine Turner, an American artist, who travels with her engineer husband and two sons. During these amazing years, the world changed drastically and Catherine's life changed with it when she leaves her western world and enters a much different world filled with explosive, ever changing events. In this story of love and loss and of never losing hope, Catherine journeys into a strange land and conquers her fear of living alone behind high walls in a harsh desert environment within a culture that denigrates women. It's only when she begins to live in this environment...
