Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Federal Ocean Program: The Annual Report of the President to the Congress on the Nation s Efforts to Comprehend, Conserve, and Use the Sea, April 1973 The past decade has been a productive period in our Nation s effort to better understand and utilize our marine resources. The early 1960 s saw the establishment of a firm foundation for our Nation s oceanographic research programs. Building on this research base in the late 60 s and early 70 s, we began formulating policies and carrying out plans to derive practical benefits from our ocean activities. New marine-related institutions were developed, the importance of marine sciences to the activities of existing institutions was recognized, and their efforts were expanded. While recognizing the ongoing importance of basic research, I believe that this emphasis on practical benefits must also be carried forward in the years ahead. Ocean Industries We have been particularly concerned of late with the challenge of relieving our dependence on marine imports and at the same time, providing new products and services for export. Our fishing industry has been a special focus of concern. At present, we import approximately 70 percent of our fish products, in spite of the fact that some of the world s most fertile fisheries lie directly off our coasts. These imports contribute a billion dollars to our foreign trade deficit. To help protect our domestic fishing industry, I have recommended legislation which would permit U.S. regulation of foreign fishing off our coasts to the fullest extent authorized by international agreements and would permit Federal regulation of domestic fisheries in the U.S. fisheries zone and in the high seas beyond...
