Excerpt: . . . prisons in At this southernmost port of Morocco, we discovered an ex-governor of a Province who had been in prison for more than thirty years, having been incarcerated during the lifetime of the grandfather of the present Sultan. This poor man is said to have been a good and just governor, and that he owed his imprisonment to his reluctance to carry out the cruel orders of his superiors. For this cause he has been allowed to languish so long in prison; in fact, he has now become almost forgotten, and would starve were it not for the kindness of some of the European residents. We laid the case of this unfortunate prisoner before their Excellencies Sir J. Drummond Hay and the French and German Ambassadors, all of whom declared ignorance of his existence. It is hoped that they will now do something to procure his release. His name is Boo-MAHDi. Since our return from Morocco a letter has been received from the Rev J. B. Crighton Ginsberg, of Mogador, dated January 22nd, 1886, from which we make the following extract: --A day or two after your departure from Mogador there arrived El Kehib, ex-Governor in the North; also two others (governors) from the Bene MTeer, all three heavily chained and thrown into the same dungeon. These Kaidis are not paying the penalty of the law for any misdeeds they have committed, but are simple victims of injustice. They are torn from their homes...
