If it is necessary to burn slashings ample notice must always be given the nearest forest officer before burning, so that he may take steps to reduce the danger. If notice is not given, or if the rangers instructions are not followed, the person responsible for the burning will be held strictly accountable for all damage to the forest, and will be liable. In aggravated cases, to criminal prosecution. Regulation 80a. All forest officers will cooperate with state and territorial officials so far as they can, without undue interference with their regular forest work, to enforce local laws for the prevention and extinguishment of forest fires. When authorized to do so by the proper state officers, they will, without additional pay, act as fire wardens, with full power to enforce the local laws. Regulation 81. The...
