Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Some 80 plus messages from a preseason Ministerial Institute and the Session proper-over 400,000 words. THE thirtieth session of the Seventh-day Adventist General Conference was held at Battle Creek, Michigan over a four and one-half week period from January 27 through March 6, 1893. A Ministerial Institute occupied the first three weeks. This General Conference Session, with its special Ministerial Institute, was removed only five years from the controversial 1888 Session in Minneapolis. That earlier session was noteworthy for the strong emphasis on righteousness by faith by two of its presenters- A T. Jones and E. J. Waggoner. Their messages (unfortunately not recorded or published) were highly praised by the Lord s Messenger, Ellen G. White. Also unfortunately, there was stubborn resistance on the part of some leaders to that emphasis. The servant of the Lord made it clear that God wanted to, and had started to, pour out the Latter Rain upon His people. In 1896, three years after this present GC Session, Ellen White wrote that the light of the loud cry that was to have lightened the whole earth was resisted and rejected by us in 1888. See Selected Messages, book 1, 234-235. These troubling events still weighed heavily on the minds of many of the presenters at this present session. Several of them made reference to their concerns. Now when I think that for four years we have been in the time of the latter rain, and that God has wanted to pour out his Spirit that these gifts might be restored, that his work might go with power; and that he wishes us to join gladly in the work and...
